

18 Reasons to Impeach

- [1] Violating the impoundment law by closing agencies and departments that were created and funded by Congress, and withholding or redirecting funds from purposes intended by Congress.
- [2] Failure to comply with Federal court orders.
- [3] Falsely declaring emergencies to use powers normally possessed by Congress.
- [4] Targeting political opponents, attorneys and law firms, and news media, who have done nothing illegal
- [5] Denying universities and their students the right to free expression, (violating 1st amendment) using power over research grants to penalize them.
- [6] Arresting, detaining and deporting persons without due process, violating the Constitution's Bill of Rights.
- [7] Cruel and unusual punishment: Using a 3rd country known to practice inhumanity to prisoners as a deportation destination, not the country of origin.
- [8] Conspiring with Putin, endangering the sovereignty of a US ally, Ukraine, a victim of illegal aggression.
- [9] Endangering the security of the US by alienating, offending and threatening world allies, stopping USAID assistance and Voice of America broadcasts that create good will and promote democracy.
- [10] Usurping Congressional authority over taxation to impose needless tariffs, known to cause harm to the US economy-- trade wars with allies, increasing inflation, unemployment, and uncertainty.
- [11] Violating confidentiality of personal information kept by Federal agencies.
- [12] Violating the emoluments clause in the Constitution repeatedly, and engaging in blatant corruption, granting favors to large donors.
- [13] Misusing his power to Pardon.
- [13] Quitting climate accords, and slowing clean energy progress.
- [14] Quitting World Health Org. and promoting unscientific health policies.
- [15] Banning diversity in hiring practices.
- [16] Attempting to end birthright citizenship that was ordained in the 14th Amendment
- [17] Authorizing murder at sea, destroying rather than arresting alleged drug smugglers in small boats.
- [18] Using military force without Congressional authorization to kidnap the President of Venezuela.