

ELECTION 2024

Arizona: Ruben Gallego was elected Senator. Analise Ortiz won State Senate from my district. She is a very appealing young progressive; she reminds me of AOC. The Women's Reproductive Rights amendment (139) won. That was the good news.

Kamala & Tim should have won, to defeat Donald Trump, the worst President in US history, and the biggest danger ever to our freedom and democracy.

The Israel-Gaza genocide, and Biden's policy toward Israel, in particular not cutting off weapons supplies, was the biggest factor in the loss. Racism and gender bias may have had an effect too, but the reason too many didn't vote at all was Israel, the one bad mistake Biden made, and which Harris did not denounce or promise a change in policy.

It was the worst possible time to react to one bad policy. It was well known that Trump would be far worse, even on that very issue.

There is also some reason to suspect a Musk-involved tampering with the vote count. Trump hinted at Musk's skill with computers. It needs to be proved before accusing him, of course.
