22 Rose - I WAS SITTING ONCE AGAIN IN THE Backstage when this shapely brunette suggested we go outside to the beer garden. In the relative privacy of the rustic wooden booths under the stars, she took my hand and placed it under her blouse on her beautiful big warm breasts. I took her home with me. She had one of the nicest bodies I have met - soft, light brown skin, perfect big tits and ass, but not fat at all. She was very, very good. I would have called her again, but Jill came back shortly after.

23 LAURA I should be able to remember her name, the short necked Pancake House waitress who was Jill's co-worker before she left for K.C. She had temporarily left a nondescript boyfriend, and was in need of comforting as I was. She was cute and had a nice, firm medium body. She had a rather passionate tendency to squeeze hand and use her fingernails when she was coming. I had some real good times with that girl - not all of them in bed. It pissed Jill off, since she was her friend, but I always thought friends should share. However, the affair was over - she had moved out of town by the time Jill got back. I have numbered her out of sequence - she should be before Vicki. I'm also omitting 2 one-time only from the Austin period, one from the Austex, who I loved the constant, and another who rode with me to the Inshore and made love.

Great Women I HAVE KNOWN

24 JAN HORNE - She was a co-worker at the Brown School in Austin - had been a friend of Jill and I and when Jill married me a west to L.A., leaving me in Austin to follow later, Jan decided to substitute for her, and avail herself of an opportunity for some good sex. She was cute, with a nice body, though not beautiful, and intelligent and open-minded. She was a feminist with a sense of humor, which is rare enough. Jan didn't come easily, but we spent many enjoyable days and nights working on that problem, and we finally got it licked. Very licked. She was a woman who could be a lover and a friend, with enough sense to deal with a limited relationship and enjoy it. I was saddened to hear last year she had a serious accident from which it will take her a long time to recover. I wish her the best.
