

GREAT WOMEN I HAVE KNOWN (15) Robin - Nearly AS tall AS I, with a good, somewhat athletic body, she was most enjoyable in bed, relatively uninhibited, enjoying sex. She was also pretty, fairly intelligent and independent. I met her at the Levy in K.C. and dated her for several months, alternating between her Apt. and mine. She had relatives in the mafia, a brother who was assassinated in a Cadillac. This fact lost me a job with an adult bookstore - wrong branch, I suppose. Once we went canoeing down the north fork of the white river in the Ozarks. That was fun, but she didn't want to fuck in the tent, which was the beginning of our breakup. I didn't want to lose her, especially after I'd passed up Susan for her, but she was afraid to get too close to someone, after losing her brother.

GREAT WOMEN I HAVE KNOWN (16) Tanya - Another who I met at the Levy, and I'm not sure I have her name right. She was a one-night stand, though I played tennis with her afterward a couple of times. I went for coffee with her after the Levy closed, and she asked me if I'd spend the night with her. The direct approach always turns me on. She had a beautiful pair of tits, married only by a divided nipple which was actually a bit exotic. She was quite good, and seemed to enjoy me, but was not into repeating sex. Several months later I saw her again, at Michael's bar, and she wanted me again. I was unable to take advantage of this offer at the time, unfortunately - I had a date with someone else. Nevertheless her breasts were memorable, as was her sexual honesty, still too rare among women.
