SAT MARCH ONE

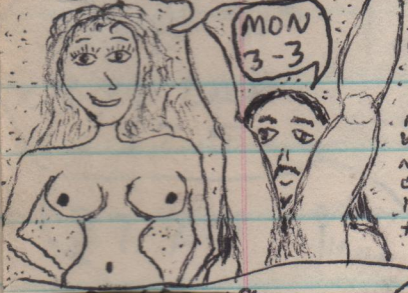

GREAT WOMEN I HAVE KNOWN
 Not included in the numerical list are a couple of women at L.A. orgies, though they were very enjoyable, one rather young crested redhead I met at the Tennessee while Jill was in Palm Springs, and one blonde dancer at GCS in Phoenix, though the latter probably deserves mention because she purposely seduced me while dancing and thereafter became the first I fucked in a taxi. Good old 5'26, parked on a Mountain Road in North Phoenix. She was very good, too. However, she returned to a boyfriend after that, leaving without a repent. Well, I'll give her a number anyway... (25)

(26) CATRINA - Met her at the Miray Inn lounge, a short but voluptuous blonde Polish girl, originally named Catherine. After a sensuous snack of french fries & blue cheese, I took her to my room for some highly, and mutually, satisfying sex. Then Jill, who had left me, came to my door and made a dubious scene. This certainly got my wife's ego up with Tina off to an interesting start. Though she knew I was still in love with Jill, she at times accepted this and at times was highly competitive and jealous of her. She would get unmanageably argumentative, especially when drinking, and other times very understanding. She was almost always angry for sex, and we were very good for each other. She was the night girl at the night.

GREAT WOMEN I HAVE KNOWN
 Pat when I looked over a couple of seats down the bar. There was the most together-looking biker chick I'd ever seen. She had a kind of experienced attractiveness about her, and a look of self-sufficiency and confidence. She looked as if she might ride her own bike. She was easy to talk to, and she liked me, so she ended up staying with me a couple of weeks. She'd hitched out from Kansas to see her dying father in the VA Hosp. She was quite thin, and a year older than I, but a good and responsive lover. Once Jill came by and caught us in bed, taking it quite well. Tina did likewise and threw a tantrum like Jill did with Tina. After her father died, Gypsy went back to Kansas, but we stayed in touch, and I visited her the next summer, and she came to see me the following fall. She's one of the best people I know. She's raised 3 daughters, traveled everywhere, is a talented photographer, intelligent, and good-hearted, a friend in need to many. It is a privilege to know her.

 (27) Gypsy - I was at Whiskers East with Terry and Pat when I looked over a couple of seats down the bar. There was the most together-looking biker chick I'd ever seen. She had a kind of experienced attractiveness about her, and a look of self-sufficiency and confidence. She looked as if she might ride her own bike. (28) Though she was but a brief encounter, Sunshine deserves mention because of the cool, classy way she seduced me. She sat next to me at Warsaw Wally's, and after a brief conversation, she said, "I'm going home to sleep - make my day. She was a tall blonde with a nice body. She moved around a lot, and though she invited me to come back, she was hard to find. And met me behind Warsaw Wally's as I was about to leave on my bike. She asked me if I'd take her for a ride. I did. A day later she called me, and I took her home and kept her for several days. She was cute, though a little pudgy, and fucked well. I was not ready for a permanent live-in though, and one day after she had mentioned that she wouldn't mind if I had other women over, I brought Catrina home with me, and she got mad and left Chivellin.

(29) Brenda had just arrived in town from the east, and met me behind Warsaw Wally's as I was about to leave on my bike. She asked me if I'd take her for a ride. I did. A day later she called me, and I took her home and kept her for several days. She was cute, though a little pudgy, and fucked well. GREAT WOMEN I HAVE KNOWN
 (30) Linda comes in the interesting but not to be repeated category. Even when she first met me she pressed herself against me as if unable to communicate without full body contact. This gave me the impression she was very sensual. Not necessarily. When she took me home with her, her dog ate her marijuana, which put her in a bad mood. It seems she needed the weed to get in the mood for sex. She was definitely uninspired. Another time she was with another guy at Frankie's and she tried to get me to whisk her away on my bike. I told her she needed to deal with her friend herself. I don't encourage game-playing.

(31) Sheree - She began as a taxi personal, then picked me up at Frankie's. She's a nice girl, but she has a couple of quirks that are discouraging - she doesn't like to ride very much, and she's shy about getting her pussy eaten. Still, she's good in bed when I get her there, cute, nice body, intelligent about most things.
