GREAT WOMEN I HAVE KNOWN

'T WAS A SUNNY DAY...

Which brings us to the present time, and an especially nice one named Patti. The re I was in Frankie's, sipping a beer and observing it all like I do, when I spotted a pretty woman meandering about the place. She may have noticed me noticing her - after some meaningful eye contact, we maneuvered into meeting. She felt me drags, I feel her breakfast, and we went to my place, where I discovered to my delight she was delightful in bed. And she seems to think I am, too. Besides having excellent taste (in both senses), she is also very intelligent and quick witted, and talented as well. And she loves to ride. What more CAN I ask? We have matching gall-bladder scars, matching signs... maybe we are two of a kind. Time will tell. Anyway, she's 10x5 OF FUN.
